2102.17 Keeping the Court Informed

Requirement

Keep the court informed of the following in situations where the department has protective supervision or legal custody of a child:

- Adjustment of the child;
- The parents' compliance or noncompliance with the orders of the court, i.e. participation in therapy, visitation, etc;
- Changes in the child's placement or living plans; and,
- A parent's compliance with making support payments, which are enforced by Superior Court.

Procedures/Practice Issues

Establish an understanding between the county department and the court of the procedure for keeping the court informed.
